

Pathways to Hope for Children

A Luncheon Benefitting One Safe Place

Co-chairs:

Chief of Police
Neil Noakes

Join us in supporting Pathways to Hope for Children, a vital initiative to ensure sustainability and funding for One Safe Place Children's Programming.

Our programs cater to children and youth ages 7-17 who have been impacted by domestic violence, often over a period of years. Our programs, like Growing Hope, are designed to teach emotional resilience skills and instill hope for brighter futures. Our licensed counselors provide individual and family counseling services, teaching children and parents coping skills while helping them discover pathways to end the generational cycle of abuse that affects far too many lives.

Debbie Cooley

Additionally, our Pathway Activities, Camp HOPE Texas, and High Adventure Backpacking trips provide invaluable personal development through enriching experiences rarely accessible to children and youth from domestic violence households. Our Pathways to College program further ensures that all Camp HOPE Texas participants have the opportunity to pursue higher education. With your support, we can continue empowering these innocent young individuals on their journey toward healing and success.

Your participation in the Pathways Lunch will make a meaningful difference in the lives of these deserving youth.
